

Domaine Joseph Voillot

Côte de Beaune

This is very clearly one of the top addresses for first class Volnay and Pommard premier crus in all of Burgundy!

-John Gilman, A View from the Cellar, #74, April 2018

For all the difficulties that Jean-Pierre Charlot has gone through over the last vintages, not least the miserly volume of 2016s—this is one of the best cellars of 2016—no question!

-Bill Nanson, Burgundy Report, November 2017

Week one, visit one was to one of my favorite growers, Jean-Pierre Charlot from Domaine Joseph Voillot. I have known Jean-Pierre since back in my buying days when my employer wisely distributed his wines in Japan. Ever since I have known him, he has fashioned what might be termed “proper Burgundy,” uninterested in fads of fashion, just great Pommard and Volnay that often benefit from bottle age.

-Neal Martin, The Wine Advocate, December 2017

Moreover, every single wine in the range is recommended and that is something that rarely occurs in the pages of Burghound.

-Allen Meadows, Burghound, #70, April 2018

Volnay Vieilles Vignes ‘16

- This is fine village cru. -86-88 pts, Neal Martin
- Small saline notes and real persistence – bravo – such a great villages... -Bill Nanson [Nanson does not score]
- 91 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 90 pts, John Gilman
- 89 pts, Allen Meadows

Volnay 1er Cru Les Caillerets ‘16

- Just two-and-a-half barrels of it, was much more withdrawn and surly compared to the Fremiets, but it does not take much encouragement to eke out those lovely wild strawberry and Morello scents, the mineralité tucked in just behind. -90-92 pts, Neal Martin
- This will be an outstanding example of Caillerets with sufficient bottle age. -93 pts, John Gilman
- Simply a great Caillerets nose, really great. -Bill Nanson
- 94 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 93 pts, Allen Meadows

Volnay 1er Cru Les Champans ‘16

- Concentrated and full with a deep core of vibrant fruit and a rich frame of ripe tannins. Excellent potential. -94 pts, William Kelley, Decanter Magazine
- This is the best example of Champans I have tasted from the 2016 vintage! -94 pts, John Gilman
- “All the parameters are there for a good bottle in the future years – it’s a shame that so many are drunk in the first 2 or 3 years” says Jean-Pierre. -Bill Nanson
- 90-92 pts, Neal Martin
- 92 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 93 pts, Allen Meadows

Volnay 1er Cru Les Fremiets '16

- I adore the harmony and precision of this Fremiets, not a powerful or flamboyant Volnay, but just Pinot Noir shimmering on the tongue. This comes highly recommended for those that appreciate classic Volnay. -91-93 pts, Neal Martin
- Super depth, mouth-watering, growing volume. Again saline and complex – more about melting, long, long flavour than intensity in the finish – but what length! -Bill Nanson
- 94 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 92 pts, John Gilman
- 91 pts, Allen Meadows

Pommard Vieilles Vignes '16

- This is a very, very classy bottle of Pommard V.V. in the making. -90+ pts, John Gilman
- Lovely, just lovely. -90 pts, Neal Martin
- 91 pts, William Kelley, Decanter Magazine
- 92 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 89 pts, Allen Meadows

Pommard 1er cru Les Epenots '16

- Superb. This has great potential, maybe more than 2015 although just two barrels were produced...an endless core of cool fruit. -94 pts, William Kelley, Decanter Magazine
- 91-93 pts, Neal Martin
- 93 pts, Allen Meadows

Pommard 1er cru Pézerolles '16

- A divine bouquet with perfumed black cherry and raspberry fruit tinged with violet, quite Volnay-like in style and very seductive. -90-92 pts, Neal Martin
- The complexity and width of finishing flavor is simply beautiful. -Bill Nanson
- This is first class Pézerolles! -93+ pts, John Gilman
- 94 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 92 pts, Allen Meadows

Pommard 1er cru Rugiens '16

- Four barrels this vintage...this is one of the most complex aromatics from the domaine. -92-94 pts, Neal Martin
- Really a wine to wait for, but the aroma is already to die for... -Bill Nanson
- Great juice. -94 pts, John Gilman
- 95 pts, Tim Atkins MW, Burgundy 2016 Special Report
- 93 pts, Allen Meadows
