

Domaine Joseph Voillot

Côte de Beaune

Domaine Joseph Voillot in Volnay is making beautiful wines and their 2018s are again, fine examples of the vintage...With tons of old vines in the domaine's parcels, many planted back in the 1930s, there does not seem to have been any issue with having to wait for tannins to ripen up while the sugars got too high, so the red wines have turned out quite classically across the board here and will be some of the absolute steals of the 2018 vintage!

–John Gilman, View from the Cellar #84, Nov-Dec 2019

Located in the shadow of the church that lies in the center of Volnay village, Domaine Joseph Voillot has been the mainstay of what might be described as “traditional” winemaking practices for many years.
