Madiran Vieilles Vignes 2015

Christine Dupuy farms her family's 50 acres of vines, including 2 acres planted 150 years ago. She makes this brambly, rich and round wine from vines that are at least 50 years old. It calls to mind all sorts of grilled meats—Korean barbecue, Brazilian steakhouse, smoked pork—and with a vigorous decant (or some pre-dinner breathing time), it would be an easy match for any of them.
