Known as one of the most revered winemakers of the Northern Rhône Valley and doing it all with a little help from his children!

Raised in the Rhône 🍷

Born in Chavanay, a corner of the Northern Rhône Valley where iconic vineyards are found in prestigious appellations such as Côte Rôtie and Condrieu, Pierre-Jean Villa has captivated wine enthusiasts with his conviction and passion.

The Ralph Lauren of Winemakers 🧔

Known for his piercing blue eyes, inviting smile, and firm hand, he creates wines that reflect his authentic and elegant image. After years of working for other producers, he set out to start his own adventure, returning home to Chavanay to create his own destiny!

Delicate Approach 🌿

He has spent the last 15 years planting his vines on particularly steep terraces across 17 hectares on both sides of the Rhône.

Sensitive to the Soils 🍷

Known as a sensitive winemaker, Pierre believes that "a great wine is born exclusively from respected land and fruit." A man that never gives up and holds his wines and himself to a higher standard, his devotion and respect for the soils that produce his fabulous wines are what sets him apart.

A Family Affair 👨‍👩‍👧‍👦

His children Pauline & Hugo have now joined the estate with hopes of taking over the family's legacy. Born and raised in the world of wine, these siblings share the same admiration for the craft as their father. Those who are close to this iconic family would say they inherited his natural enthusiasm, curiosity, and awareness - which has inspired them to create their own estate in 2022: Hugo & Pauline Villa.
