

Domaine Lecointre

Anjou

Anjou “Le Béguin” 2022

The Anjou Blanc “le Béguin” from Cyrille Lecointre is made from relatively young vines by the domaine’s standards, with this wine hailing from two parcels of chenin blanc, one planted in 1993 and the other in 2003. The 2022 version is quite lovely, offering up a bright and complex bouquet of quince, apple, lanolin, flinty soil tones, citrus peel and a topnote of white flowers. On the palate the wine is vibrant, full-bodied, focused and bone dry in style, with a good core, excellent mineral undertow, fine balance and a long, complex and juicy finish. Fine juice.

92 pts– John Gilman, View from the Cellar, July-August 2023