

Château de Montebériot Bordeaux

Côtes de Bourg Villa Jeanne 2016

This vineyard, opposite the confluence of the Dordogne and Garonne rivers, has produced a rich wine with plenty of spice that comes from four plots. Black currants and spice come through strongly. Drink the wine now.

Aromas of blackcurrants, stewed blackberries, mocha, thyme and bay leaves. Showing some spicy elements too, with well-integrated tannins and a creamy, soft finish. 70% merlot, 20% malbec and 10% cabernet franc. Delicious now.
