Armonia Langhe Bianco 2021

Enrico Nada's Bianco "Armonia" is composed from a blend of roughly fifty to sixty percent sauvignon blanc, thirty to forty percent arneis and ten percent vermentino. The wine is fermented in stainless steel tanks and does not go through malolactic fermentation. The 2021 Armonia offers up a lovely nose of lemon, casaba melon, a touch of green olive, a lovely base of soil tones and a topnote of white flowers. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, focused and zesty, with a lovely core, good soil undertow and grip, a fine spine of acidity and impressive length and grip on the well balanced and complex finish. Good juice. 2023-2028.
