

MADSON PINOT NOIR SANTA CRUZ MOUNTAINS

---

Madson Wines is a collaboration between Cole Thomas, Ken Swegles, and Abbey Chrystal out of the Santa Cruz Mountains. The trio is committed to celebrating the terroir of the central coast mountains, highlighting the natural freshness and acidity grapes are able to retain here. They showcase single-vineyard bottlings as well as blends, and their focus is on energy and elegance.

---

VINEYARD

- Site: Sourced from small vineyard sites which the Madson team farms throughout the Santa Cruz Mountains. The sites all benefit from the cooling influence of Monterey Bay.
- Soil: Ancient marine sediment.
- Vines: A blend of many parcels of different ages, rootstock and clones and highlighting the different microclimates within the Santa Cruz Mountains AVA.
- Varieties: Pinot Noir.

CELLAR

- Vinification & Aging: Fermented whole cluster and then aged in neutral barrels for nine months. Unfined and unfiltered.
- Production: 400-500 cases.
- Profile: The palpable freshness is a result of the cooling influence of Monterey Bay. A balanced, earthy palate with medium tannins.
