Châteauneuf-du-Pape Marquis Anselme Mathieu 2022

My favorite in de Saje's lineup, the 2022 Chateauneuf du Pape Marquis Anselme Mathieu reveals a dense, complex bouquet of spices, licorice, dark berries, lilac, garrigue and plum. Medium to full-bodied, charming and enveloping, it has a fleshy core of fruit, velvety tannins, a sappy texture and a long, fresh and harmonious finish. Crafted from vines planted on red sandstone and brown soils, this is a blend of Grenache Noir, Syrah, Mourvèdre, Cinsault, Terret Noir, Picardan, Picpoul Blanc, Muscardin, Bourboulenc, Vaccarèse, Roussanne, Cunoise and Clairette in unknown proportions, all matured for 12 months in foudres or wooden tanks. Produced at only 3,500 bottles.

The star of the show from this year's lineup from Domaine de Saje is the 2022 Châteauneuf-du-Pape Marquis Anselme Mathieu. Bursting with pronounced licorice, black cherry, blackcurrant and cured meat, it touches the palate with sweet-tasting fruit, all wrapped up in soft tannins and refreshing acidity. Showing absolutely no rough edges, the 2022 is a real crowd-pleaser. Production totaled only 3,500 bottles.
