Langhe Nebbiolo 2024

Enrico Nada's 2024 Langhe Nebbiolo, which he produces from his young vines in his two Barbaresco crus of Casot and Marcarini on the ridge in the township of Treiso, comes in at 13.5 percent octane in this vintage. The wine's aromatic constellation is bright and youthful, wafting from the glass in a mix of cherries, a bit of road tar, pigeon, fresh oregano, licorice and a fine base of soil. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, precise and beautifully transparent down to the soil, with a fine core of red fruit, tangy acids, moderate tannins and fine focus and balance on the long and youthfully complex finish. This is an excellent young wine, but it will want some cellaring time to soften up its tannins before drinking. 2031-2065.
